

University Enrollment

This fall, DePaul enrolled 21,348 total students, up from 20,917 in fall 2022. Undergraduate enrollment accounts for 67% of total enrollment, compared with 64% in 2019. Graduate enrollment accounts for 30% of university enrollment, and law accounts for 3% of university enrollment.

Fall 2023 Enrollment

 14,374
undergraduate students

 6,378
graduate students

 596
law students

University Enrollment

Fall 2014-Fall 2023

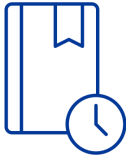

University Enrollment by College

21,348 enrollment total

Jarvis College of Computing and Digital Media	6,238
Driehaus College of Business	5,275
College of Science and Health	3,193
College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences	2,403
College of Education	1,290
College of Communication	999
College of Law	596
School of Continuing and Professional Studies	519
The Theatre School	458
School of Music	377

280,046
Total credit hours in fall 2023

79%
of credit hours generated by undergraduates

26% of credit hours taken online

88%
Full-time

54%
Female

44%
Students of Color

11% International

New Student Enrollment

2,943
New Freshmen

1,092
New Transfers

2,017
New Master's

30%
of total credit hours are from new students

1,035
New International Students (F1/J1)

For more information, visit IRMA's Fact File